This Royal beach destination has lots to offer, and we will take you on a trip through some of the regions most visited and well-known sights. We head out to the Teak Wooden Palace, constructed by King Rama IV, officially known as "Marruekkathayawan". Magnificent craftsmanship is being displayed here. Here our guide will take you for short ride on a bicycle around the garden to see and the Princess's research centre. Final stop of this Royal beach destination half day is Khao Takiab (or Monkey Mountain). A huge number of monkeys made this mountain their home, hence the name. For those taking the climb all the way to the top, you will be rewarded with a stunning view along the Hua Hin coast line.
